2 Annunziato whether you believe that Dave Annunziato
3 should be paying for things like your rent and the 4 other things that you identified?

5 MR. ELLIOT: Object to the form. It is an
6 argumentative question.

7 Q You can answer.

8 A I am not going to answer, it is stupid.

9 Q Sir, you just identified what you believed 10 were collection costs?

11 A I asked you if you considered those if 12 those were part of collection costs. I asked you
13 what you thought or is it just a cost of three
14 people making phone calls and two simple letters
15 being sent.

16 Q I will back up.

17 A few moments ago you testified that 18 you would assume that the costs of collection was 19 higher than the amounts that were sought from the 20 consumers in Plaintiff's Exhibit eight, do you
21 remember that testimony?

22 A Yes.

23 Q What made you make that assumption?

24 A Well, first of all, if I took the legal 25 cost to defend this case and what we have spent so

2 far and I look at the amount of money that was
3 actually collected just considering no other costs,
4 we have already spent more to collect than what the 5 amount of the collection costs would be.

6 Q Okay.

7 And what about for a consumer that
8 was -- that did not sue Collecto, would you believe 9 in that circumstance that the percentage or the 10 actual cost of collecting a debt would be higher
11 than what you actually sought to collect from that 12 consumer?

13 MR. ELLIOT: Objection to form.

14 A Yes, I would think so.

15 Q What would you base that on?

16 A Based on my knowledge of what the cost to 17 run our business and what the small amount of 18 payments have been on accounts like that.

19 Q Okay.

20 So, for instance, if there was a
21 consumer on the list of 484 people contained within 22 Plaintiff's Exhibit eight that was charged $5,000 as 23 a collection cost, do you believe that that consumer
24 cost Collecto more than that $5,000?

25 MR. ELLIOT: Objection to form.

2 A The answer is, they we are constantly
3 looking at our costs, our commissions are set in 4 order to be able to recoup our costs and make a
5 small 5 percent margin of profit at the end of the 6 year. All of this goes into one big bucket. To 7 comment on a specific account and a specific charge,
8 it is very difficult because it is meaningless in 9 the scheme of the overall calculation of what the 10 fee rates should be.

11 Q But I was asking whether the amount of 12 money that you seek to collect from each one of 13 those consumers within Plaintiff's Exhibit eight
14 whether that amount bore any relationship to the 15 actual cost of collection of, we will start with 16 Collecto, did it?

17 MR. ELLIOT: Objection, asked and
18 answered.

19 A Collecto has nothing to do with it. This 20 is the client telling us, this is the amount that 21 they want us to collect on their behalf to pay for 22 the service.

23 So if the question is, do our
24 services warrant that, in many circumstances in this 25 client in particular the circumstances would be that

2 we have not been compensated for the work that we 3 have done and our expenses are far above what the 4 actual revenue was on those particular 484 consumers
5 that you have identified.

6 Q So it didn't bear any relationship
7 whatsoever to Collecto's actual costs of collection,
8 correct?

9 MR. ELLIOT: Objection to form.

10 A You are talking about the actual cost of 11 collection and you have not defined it properly.

12 Q Correct me if I am wrong, but you just 13 indicated to me that the sole purpose --

14 MR. ELLIOT: How many different times are 15 you going to ask the same question that he has 16 already answered?

17 Q With respect to the 484 people contained
18 within Plaintiff's Exhibit eight, I believe you just 19 testified that the only basis for the collection
20 cost that was charged to those consumers was based 21 and what New York Tech told you, correct?

22 MR. ELLIOT: Objection to form.

23 A We have a contract with New York Tech
24 where we offered to do collection work at certain
25 rates based on our experience and knowledge of doing

2 collection work and they agreed to an amount which 3 would be their costs. We are collecting an amount as 4 to what their costs are to get the work accomplished
5 and get it done.

6 What it costs us to do that work when
7 you take into consideration all of the various
8 aspects to get to that point, I am sure our costs
9 have exceeded by a significant amount whatever the 10 revenue was that was generated.

11 Q Okay.

12 And the cost that was charged to Dave
13 Annunziato of 1,382.79 you believe that that is less
14 than the actual cost that it costs for Collecto to 15 collect that debt?

16 MR. ELLIOT: Objection.

17 A That specific debt?

18 Q Yes, sir.

19 A Well, our costs are handling all of the 20 accounts, all of the debt, not a specific account.
21 We can't figure our costs based on one, debtor.

22 Q Speaking --

23 MR. ELLIOT: Now you are arguing with the 24 witness, we are done with this subject.

25 MR. MAURO: I am not arguing with the

3 MR. ELLIOT: We are done with that
4 subject.

5 Q How much did it cost to print the letter
6 that was mailed to Dave Annunziato?

7 A How much did it cost to print the letter?
8 Oh, I don't know the current numbers, probably like
9 60 cents.

10 Q How much did it cost to make the phone
11 calls that you made to Dave Annunziato?

12 A Well, we have to buy a phone system, we 13 have to hire employees, we have to get a building,
14 we got to have the building cleaned, we have to pay
15 our utility bills we have to do all of that.

16 If I took all of that overhead and 17 related it to this bill, then we probably spent at 18 least ten times more than what he would have paid to 19 get to that point.

20 Q And you believe that that is a collection
21 cost that you can seek reimbursement for?

22 MR. ELLIOT: Objection to form.

23 Q Correct?

24 A Collection costs are the costs of doing
25 business. You don't take selectively one aspect of

2 that to arrive at a particular figure, no one does
3 that, no business man does that.

4 Q There are students within Plaintiff's
5 Exhibit eight that have collection costs of more
6 than 3,000, are you aware of that?

7 A Yes, I saw some in there.

8 Q And the collection methods that were used
9 to attempt to collect money from those students, did
10 they differ in any significant way from the attempts
11 to collect a debt from Dave Annunziato?

12 A I don't believe so.

13 Q Yet you believe that it is appropriate to 14 include your overhead and other costs of running the 15 company into collecting the debt from the student
16 who owed 3,000 in the same form?

17 MR. ELLIOT: What do you mean by 18 appropriate? Are you asking him a legal 19 question, now? Objection.

20 MR. MAURO: Are you testifying, Joe?

21 MR. ELLIOT: This is an inappropriate
22 question asked in an inappropriate question,
23 asked in an inappropriate and argumentative
24 way.

25 Q Is it appropriate to charge 3,000 to one

2 consumer and 1,382.79 to another consumer when you
3 are doing the same collection work for those two 4 consumers?

5 MR. ELLIOT: I am going to instruct the
6 witness not to answer the question. It is a
7 legal question and his opinion as to what is 8 appropriate or not appropriate is irrelevant.
9 I am going to instruct him not to answer.

10 MR. MAURO: On what basis is that a legal 11 conclusion? Are you asserting a privilege of 12 some sort?

13 MR. ELLIOT: I am instructing him not to
14 answer.

15 MR. MAURO: Because you don't like the
16 question.

17 MR. ELLIOT: Because his opinion what is 18 appropriate and inappropriate is legal.

19 MR. MAURO: You believe that is a proper
20 objection to instruct your client not to answer
21 the question?

22 MR. ELLIOT: Yes. You have asked it six
23 different times six different ways and it is 24 inappropriate and it is unnecessarily burdening
25 the witness.

2 THE WITNESS: Plus I have already answered
3 the question five times.

4 MR. ELLIOT: And it is not relevant to 5 anything.

6 MR. MAURO: Are you going to waive your
7 arguments if I make an argument along these 8 lines then, Mr. Elliot?

9 MR. ELLIOT: I don't know what you are 10 talking about.

11 MR. MAURO: Let me ask the questions.

12 MR. ELLIOT: He is not answering that
13 question.

14 MR. MAURO: And you have no privilege that 15 you are basing that are on, that instruction
16 not to answer. I want it clear for the record
17 because I intend to bring this issue to the ask
18 the Court to address why you were instructing
19 your client not to answer because you feel --

20 MR. ELLIOT: It is not a proper question.

21 MR. MAURO: And you feel it is a proper
22 instruction to give your client that he should 23 not answer because you don't like the question?

24 MR. ELLIOT: No.

25 MR. MAURO: There is no privilege that you

2 have identified.

3 MR. ELLIOT: I am saying it is beyond the 4 scope of the deposition.

5 MR. MAURO: That is the first time you
6 said that. I will ask the question again. If 7 you want to instruct your client not to answer,
8 I intend to raise it with the Court.

9 Q Do you believe that it is appropriate for 10 your company Collecto, Inc. to charge one student
11 contained within Plaintiff's Exhibit eight one
12 collection fee and a different student within
13 Plaintiff's Exhibit eight a different fee when you
14 do the same work to attempt to collect that fee?

15 MR. ELLIOT: I am instructing him not to
16 answer.

17 A I would like to make my comment.

18 We charge the client for the work
19 that we perform. We don't charge the student. We 20 are not charging the student, we are charging our 21 clients.

22 Our client has a relationship with 23 the student, they have established the fact that 24 whatever the cost of collection is is what they are 25 going to be seeking to be paid.

2 We have no negotiation with the 3 student, we -- all we do is we try to collect the 4 account and then the client pays us based on 5 whatever contractual arrangements we have.

6 Q The collection costs that you are charging
7 don't bear any relationship to Collecto's costs,
8 actual -- I will restate that.

9 The collection costs that you
10 attempted to collect from the students contained
11 within Plaintiff's Exhibit eight don't bear any 12 relationship to the actual costs of collection of 13 Collecto, is that right?

14 MR. ELLIOT: Objection to form.

15 A No.

16 Q It is not right?

17 A No, we don't collect just for New York
18 Tech accounts, we collect for 2000 clients and we 19 have one million consumers that we are dealing with.

20 It isn't as simple as saying, oh,
21 this particular person responded on the first letter
22 and made the payment on the account, and we will 23 give them a discount.

24 Q In figuring out how much to put as a
25 collection cost on the letters that you mailed to

2 the people contained within Plaintiff's Exhibit
3 eight, did Collecto, Inc. consider in any way
4 whether what the actual cost of collection for 5 Collecto would be for those students?

6 A That information is reflected in the fee
7 rate that we charge the client.

8 Q But for each individual consumer within 9 Plaintiff's Exhibit eight that was not a particular
10 consideration, correct?

11 A Yes, that is correct, yes.

12 Q Now, do you have any knowledge about what 13 the actual cost of collection of New York Tech would 14 be for those particular students?

15 A No.

16 Q Calling your attention to Exhibit five
17 which is the collection agreement between New York
18 Tech and Collecto, there is an addendum B in that 19 document for collection charges, do you see that,
20 sir, Plaintiff's Exhibit --

21 A I saw that, yes.

22 Q Plaintiff's Exhibit five?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Why do you include that addendum on your 25 contract?
